TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This is a mail bid auction conducted by Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. Bidding in the auction constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

1. The property listed in this catalogue is offered for sale by CNG, Inc. (the auctioneers) as agents for various owners and other consignors. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot before the close of the sale.
2. All lots are subject to a 10% Buyer's fee on the hammer price.
3. All coins are guaranteed genuine and as described based on the most current information available to the cataloguer. Grading is a subjective art. Every effort has been made to be conservative in our grading. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale may not be returned for any reason except authenticity. Estimates given by the auctioneers are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value.
4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt and the auctioneers reserve the right to charge interest on any overdue payment on invoices not settled within 30 days of the sale date. Payment by check must be made in either US ($) or British (£) funds and drawn on an United States or British bank. All successful bidders outside of North America and the United Kingdom will be charged an additional $15 fee for bank charges. Visa and Mastercard (Access) may be used to pay your bill, however, a 3.5% surcharge is made for the use of your credit card, our cost from the bank.
5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references and/or pay the full purchase price or a deposit as determined at the auctioneer's discretion before delivery of lots. Minors are forbidden from bidding without a parent's signature on the bid sheet.
6. Estimates are in U.S. dollars ($US) and please bid in even dollar ($) amounts. Mail Bidder Protection. You may submit bids with confidence. Where competition permits, your bids will be executed at 10% over the next highest bid. Please note, that most bids below estimate are rarely reduced, due to heavy competition. If you bid over estimate, chances are that your bids will be reduced. In the case of tie bids - the bid received earliest wins. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken.
7. A word on Reserves. If a lot is reserved, it will not be in excess of the estimate. Check your bid sheets carefully. The seller cannot assume responsibility for errors made by bidders.
8. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and will remain responsible to the auctioneers for full settlement per the terms of sale for this auction. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction without the prior permission of the auctioneer.
9. Sales Tax and postage and handling are added to all invoices where appropriate. Postage and handling for any book lots will be invoiced separately at the auctioneer's cost.
10. Prices Realised are published shortly after the sale and mailed to all bidders who have participated in the sale.
11. If you bid in this sale, you accept the terms as outlined above. Any legal disputes that might arise will be handled in the courts of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

GOOD LUCK and remember to mail your bid sheets early.
Bid sheets must be received by March 24, 1993.

A most enigmatic issue. The reverse legend seems to clearly indicate Himera, while the melange of types could fit a number of Sicilian cities, with the eagle and serpent being most associated with Akragas. In the decade after 410 BC the Carthaginians expanded their territory in western Sicily, conquering among others the major cities of Himera (408 BC) and Akragas (406 BC). This piece could be an alliance issue for the threatened communities. Possibly of great historical significance.

($200)

This type depicts the first part of the mythological tale referred to as "The Flaying of Marsyas." When this reverse type was resurrected for Philip I, the die-engraver left out some crucial details which would have made the type more obvious to identify.

On the specimen of Septimius Severus in the British Museum, Athena is looking backwards at her reflection in the waters of Lake Aulokrene, and the satyr Marsyas is depicted behind a rocky knoll extending his arms in surprise as he views the goddess. It is possible that the die-engraver for the present coin used a worn example of Severus' type as a model and hence mistook the rocky knoll and Marsyas as Athena's billowing cloak (as depicted on this coin). In any event, it is obvious that this is a depiction of the same scene when it is compared to the BM specimen.

To continue the story, upon seeing her reflection in the water and not liking how her cheeks puffed out while playing the flute, the vain Athena discarded it. Marsyas picked up the rejected instrument, became very proficient in its use, and challenged Apollo to their fateful contest.

This is the second specimen of this rare obverse die that we have offered (see CNA VI, lot 322). It was noted in the description for that piece, which shares the same obverse die with this coin, that the obverse legend was probably an engraver's blunder as it named him Augustus not Caesar. It has been suggested, however, by noted San Francisco collector R.S. Speck that perhaps this legend is not a blunder but rather a transitional issue engraved in haste right after Gordian's elevation to Augustus before dies could be made depicting him laureate.

Theodore, the Byzantine governor of Lydia, twice grasped for imperial power. The first instance was during the chaotic reign of Isaac II, who had to contend with restive Bulgarians, invading Crusaders and rebels such as Theodore and Isaac Comnenus on Cyprus. Theodore eventually acknowledged Isaac II as emperor, but when Constantinople fell to the Fourth Crusade in 1204, he again declared himself emperor. Theodore I Lascaris of the successor state of Nicaea removed the usurper the following year. At times thought to be a Bulgarian type, enough of Theodore's coins have now been found in Asia Minor to confirm him as the issuer.
